The bill amendment has also made changes to the length of exclusivity for the two existing operators of integrated resorts in the country: Genting and Sands. In the debate on the bill in parliament, Singapore's minister for finance Lawrence Wong also noted the growing presence of unregulated online gambling: "Trends are moving towards online gambling, but we are more concerned with the illegal space than the regulated space.

If technology makes it easier for people to gamble anywhere and everywhere, then such illegal online gambling will continue to grow.
